CONCERTS BEGIN at 7 P.M.

Performances will be recorded whenever possible and uploaded to South Country Library's YouTube channel within a week following the show: www.youtube.com/user/SouthCountryLibrary

Alex Wu Trio
"Cantos De Las Americas"

Join us for the library's annual celebration of Hispanic Heritage on Friday, September 13 at 7 p.m. with a trio from New York City led by pianist Alex Wu. The New York City trio will kick off the new concert season by performing their show, "Cantos De Las Americas." From Puerto Rican Bolero to Appalachian folk song; from the Flamenco roots of Granada to Musical Theater, this voice, guitar and piano ensemble brings you a range of universal emotions expressed by composers throughout the ages, in Spanish and English. The trio will perform the songs and music of Albéniz, Bernstein, Brouwer, Cordero, Grever, Jobim, Piazzolla, Velasquez, Villa-Lobos and more. Authentic Hispanic desserts will be served following the performance.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH CELEBRATION
Friday, September 13, 7 p.m.

OUTDOOR CONCERT
Saturday, September 21, 7 p.m.

Captain Jack

Join us for an outdoor concert on Saturday, September 21 at 7 p.m. with Captain Jack and their rousing tribute to Long Island's own, Billy Joel. The event is held in the library portion of the front parking lot. Chairs are limited; bring chairs or blankets. In case of rain, the show will be held indoors.

He-Bird, She-Bird

On Friday, November 22, we will again host our annual community pot-luck Thanksgiving dinner at 6 p.m., followed by a concert at 7 p.m. This year's concert will feature local folk and vocal group He-Bird, She-Bird. This tuneful local trio of Todd Evans, Terri Hall, and Christine Kellar, bring a rich and heartfelt vocal sound to a wide-rambling repertoire of American acoustic roots music including folk-rock, country, bluegrass, and gospel which fuel their original songs and spirited cover interpretations.

Pot-luck Dinner 6 p.m.
Concert 7 p.m.

For more info about the pot-luck dinner or to sign up to bring a dish, please contact library assistant director Patrick O'Leary this Fall.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING
Friday, November 22
7 p.m.

HOLIDAY CONCERT
Friday, December 20, 7 p.m.

Nino

"The Songs of Sinatra and Friends"

Come celebrate the holidays with local singer Nino who will perform his show, "The Songs of Sinatra and Friends." With the room decorated in the style of a New York City supper club at Christmas time, East Patchogue resident Nino will perform a selection of songs by Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Tony Bennett, including many holiday songs. Holiday desserts will follow the performance.

JAZZ SHOW
Friday, January 10, 7 p.m.

Jerry McDonald

Backed by his fellow musicians, jazz bassist and library favorite Jerry McDonald will return to play another tight set of jazz originals and traditional pieces, designed to welcome newcomers to the genre as well as to thrill long-time jazz enthusiasts.

Rhonda Denet
"Mostly Motown"

Vocalist and band leader Rhonda Denet returns on February 21 to help us ring in Black History Month for 2020. She will perform a string of classic Motown hits with the help of her cracking backup musicians. Dessert buffet will follow the performance.

Fiddlers Green

Join us on March 13 for our annual St. Patrick's Day celebration with the Fiddlers Green. Whether joyous or full of sorrow and longing, the group plays a soulful brand of Irish music. Nobody does it quite like the Fiddlers Green! The room will be decorated for the holiday and Irish soda bread will be served following the performance.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY
Friday, March 13, 7 p.m.

Friday, April 10, 7 p.m.

Truck Stop Gypsies

Performing for the first time at the library will be husband and wife duo The Truckstop Gypsies, Lauren & Chuck Ware. The Truck Stop Gypsies acoustic duo will perform their own variation of roots influenced soulful blues, bebop, rock, retro, tear-your-heart-out songs and anything else they really like!
